IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 26th June 1961

SUBJECT:—Export Incentive Scheme—Manganese Ore.

No. 69-ITC(PN)/61.—As a measure of export promotion it has been decided to provide incentives to the exporters of manganese ore. Exporters of manganese ore would be permitted to import mining equipment and machinery for the improvement of their manganese mines to the extent of 5% of the foreign exchange earned by them through the export of manganese ore in case of straight sales against cash. A higher import entitlement not exceeding additional 5% making a total of 10% will also be considered on merits in individual cases where the Actual User establishes the need for it.

2. In the case of exports of manganese ore under barter import of machinery would be allowed to the extent indicated above on the condition that the value of the imports under the barter agreement is reduced to the extent of the machinery entitlements.

3. Import licences will be issued by the Joint Chief Controller of Imports & Exports at the Ports to whom necessary applications may be made with the requisite documents e.g. shipping bills etc. and bank certificates and also the certificate from the Director of Indian Bureau of Mines about the essentiality of the equipments sought to be imported. Licences will be granted only once in a quarter on the basis of exports effected in the preceding quarter and will be subject to the conditions applicable to Actual Users licences. Exporters may, however, if they choose obtain licences once in six months against exports made in the preceding half year period.

SUBJECT:—Export Promotion Scheme for Agarbathies.

No. 70-ITC(PN)/61.—With a view to promote export of Agarbathies, it has been decided that licences for import of Perfumery Compounds may be granted to manufacturer-exporters against exports of Agarbathies to the extent of 10% of the value of exports. The licences will be valid for import of all Agarbathies Perfumery Compounds subject to the condition that these shall be imported in packs weighing not below 2½ Kilos.

2. Applicants should apply for registration and for import licences to the Joint Chief Controller of Imports & Exports, Madras in the manner prescribed in Appendix 23 to the Red Book for April—September, 1961 licensing period. Licences will be granted only once in a quarter on the basis of exports effected in the preceding quarter and will be subject to the conditions applicable to Actual User licences.

K. T. SATARAWALA,
Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
